Interested in presenting a session at Wisconsin State SHRM’s 2015 State Conference? To assist you in preparing your proposal, we have posted submission guidelines for the Conference & Exposition. Print a copy of the guidelines and use the information to prepare your submissions. The guidelines contain the information required on the electronic submission form.

When you have completed your proposal, click on the bar below, “To Submit Your Proposal Click Here,” and enter your information. All proposals must be submitted online at the Speaker’s Corner—Response to State Conference RFP by February 21, 2015.

By the end of May, you will receive notification of the status of your proposal. Please do not contact Wisconsin State SHRM before the end of May since the speaker committee reviews will not be concluded before then.

Thank you, and good luck with your submission(s).

GUIDELINES:

2015 Wisconsin State SHRM Conference & Exposition
October 14-16, 2015

NOTE:

1. Please adhere to the word limit for each field in the submission form.

2. If you DO NOT receive a confirmation notice within minutes after you submit your proposal, hit the “Back” button and hit “Submit” again until you receive a confirmation.

3. We recommend that you save the text of your abstract, learning objectives, and methodology in a word processing file. If there is a problem in receiving your submission, you will have the text to copy and paste again (so you will not have to rewrite your proposal).

4. We would appreciate receiving a copy of a recent PowerPoint and/or handout created for this presentation or a recent presentation you have done.
CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

YOU ARE INVITED TO SHARE YOUR EXPERTISE

OVERALL CONFERENCE PROGRAMMING

October 14  Pre-Conference Workshops
October 15-16  Conference
October 14-15  Exhibit Hall

Submit Your Proposal Directly Online at www.wishrm.org

Deadline for Online Submission:
February 21, 2015

Take your place among our HR profession’s experts. By sharing your experiences, you make a valuable contribution to the profession’s field of knowledge. The Program Selection Committee is seeking proposals from dynamic, interesting speakers which reflect:

- Leading-edge information as it relates to the field of human resources
- Emerging trends in the workplace learning and performance field
- Case studies/best practices from companies and government agencies
- Strategies for improvement and innovative approaches
- Demonstration of measurable impact and results metrics

The Call for Presentations focuses on three areas: the overall conference, featuring a wide breadth of subjects (75-minute sessions and 60-minute early bird sessions), and pre-conference workshops (3½ -hour sessions).

Each presenter is responsible for adhering to the respective timeline that must be followed.

ABOUT WISCONSIN STATE SHRM

The Wisconsin Council represents human resource professionals in the State of Wisconsin and is supported through the national Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), a non-profit professional association founded in 1948. The State Council provides a communication link between the chapters and national, and is a forum for the exchange of ideas and information concerning chapter administration and the HR profession.

SHRM is divided into seven regions across the country. The Wisconsin Council SHRM is part of the North Central Region. The North Central Region is made up of the following states: Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, and Nebraska.

TARGET AUDIENCE

A majority of the conference participants are full-time human resource managers, directors, vice presidents, specialists, organizational development & training practitioners, recruitment & staffing specialists, consultants, and HR students from around the state. The audience ranges from HR college and university students to entry-level practitioners to the most highly advanced vice presidents/executive level individuals in the HR profession. We anticipate over 700 participants to attend from across Wisconsin.

TRACKS FOR THE OVERALL CONFERENCE PROGRAMMING

Programs are arranged to track major HR practice areas and learning levels. The Tracks are: Strategic, Metrics, Accountability, Rewards, and Talent.

The learning levels are: “general/basic,” “intermediate,” or “advanced” level.

General/Early level: HR professionals with 1-3 years experience
Intermediate/Mid level: HR professionals with 3-10 years experience
Advanced/Senior/Executive level: HR professionals with 10+ years experience.

Proposals should designate which Track(s) and learning level the program fits.

Preference will be granted for sessions, which meet the Human Resource Certification Institute’s (HRCI’s) guidelines for business management as well as the SHRM Body of Competency and Knowledge (SHRM BoCK).

Some general parameters for the SHRM BoCK can be found at http://www.shrm.org/certification/about/bodyofcompetencyknowledge/pages/download-shrm-bock.aspx

Some general parameters provided on the HRCI website (http://www.hrci.org/certification/bok/nbok/) include such topics for continuing education as:

- Leadership & Navigation (e.g. leadership development, change management, project management, high-impact succession management)
- Ethical Practice (e.g., business ethics, professionalism, credibility, trust building)
- Business Acumen (e.g., marketing workshops, finance for non-finance managers, accounting & finance for HR professionals)
- Relationship Management (e.g., advocacy, negotiation & conflict management, employee engagement, customer service)
- Consultation (e.g., coaching, creativity and innovation, talent management)
- Critical Evaluation (e.g., Knowledge management)
- Global & Cultural Effectiveness (e.g., diversity & inclusion, openness to experience, adaptability, global initiatives, corporate culture)
- Communication (e.g., social technology & social media, facilitation skills, C-suite communication, upper level business writing)
- Human Resource Expertise (e.g., risk management, HR technology, HR metrics, total rewards)

Preference will also be given to proposals that are for something other than a lecture format.

*Proposals submitted to sell a product are not acceptable.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The selection process follows a rigorous review of every proposal submitted. The Program Selection Committee strives for a diverse and well-balanced conference. For the 2015 Conference a special effort will be made to include speakers of both General and Advanced leadership roles in the HR community, as well those that specifically perform the HR function, programs that offer solutions that can be implemented by the practitioner, and topics that touch on diverse workplace issues.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING A PROPOSAL
Each proposal will be reviewed carefully for:

- Completeness, accuracy, and clarity of the proposal
- Well-defined, realistic learning objectives that can be met in the time allotted
- Clear, specific, and informative content and linkage of content to learning objectives
- Content that is current and practical or cutting-edge
- Presenters with expertise in the topic area and prior speaking experience in front of large groups

Incomplete or late proposals will not be considered.

Proposals must include all requested information and must be submitted directly online at the Wisconsin SHRM web site: www.wishrm.org.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE
To achieve a balanced conference program, WISCONSIN STATE SHRM will determine the days and times that presentations are given. Pre-conference workshops will be scheduled on October 14th. Concurrent sessions may be scheduled on October 15th or 16th.

REGISTRATION
As a nonprofit educational association, WISCONSIN STATE SHRM does not provide honoraria for presentations at the State Conference and Exposition. Presenters should cover all of their individual travel and hotel expenses. One speaker per concurrent session and pre-conference workshop is provided with a full complimentary registration, including lunch and attendee events.

SHRM POLICY ON EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING
Wisconsin State SHRM programs are noncommercial. Individuals should refrain from using brand names and endorsing specific products. Session topics should not be related to a specific product or service the presenter endorses. Under no circumstances should a Society podium be used as a place for direct promotion of a speaker’s product, service, or monetary self-interest. Presenters also must refrain from overt statements, harsh language, or pointed humor that disparages the rightful dignity and social equity of any individual or group.

Wisconsin State SHRM is committed to ensuring that the number of culturally diverse presenters will continue to increase in 2015.

REVIEW AND NOTIFICATION INFORMATION
The Program Selection Committee will evaluate proposals submitted based solely on the information provided, and will make final selections accordingly.

Wisconsin State SHRM will notify all proposal submitters by the end of May 2015. Please do not call Wisconsin State SHRM regarding acceptance or rejection of your proposal, unless you have not been notified by the end of May.

The Program Selection Committee encourages proposals from different companies and organizations representing diverse points of view. The committee requests companies to submit their best proposals and to limit the number of proposals they submit to two.

SPEAKER HANDOUTS
The conference is a green conference. If you are selected to present at the Wisconsin State SHRM conference, you will be required to meet the following timelines:

- Submit an electronic copy of your presentation by August 1, 2015. We will not be providing copies of the handouts at the conference so it is very important. that your handout be provided electronically for us to post for attendees.

AV EQUIPMENT
A lavaliere microphone, projector and screen will be provided in every room. Additional AV equipment must be requested by the speaker by September 1, 2015.

We will not provide laptops. Speakers must bring their own.
